VOL. XX.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1899.

NO. 39.

Notice.

Having sold a half-interest in my business, and desiring to close up my individual affairs as speedily as possible, I earnestly request all those indebted to me to settle without delay.

S. P. ARTHURSON.

There was much garden-making in town last week.

Early-sown wheat looks well. The late-sown fields will be light.

Get a Walter A. Wood Mower of E. L. & A. T. Byrnes. Best goods and best prices.

The pond frogs are now giving their monotonous concert nightly.

The Third Kentucky Regiment is ready to be mustered out at Savannah, Ga.

Carpet paper at J. M. Brother's.

The vigorous song of the robin at daybreak these spring mornings is a right cheering sound.

If not killed yet there will be a fair quantity of bloom on the apple, pear, cherry and plum trees.

E. C. PERRY, Dentist, located over J. M. Richart's store. Office hours 8 to 12 a. m.; 1 to 5 p. m.

Born, Tuesday morning, April 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Carmichael, of Louisville, a daughter.

Potato-bugs have appeared already and seem vexed that their spring grazing has not appeared yet.

We have Stoddard's Disc Harrows and Hay Rakes at greatly reduced prices.

E. L. & A. T. Byrnes.

Those who have bass to catch had better prepare to catch them now, for they will go to nesting next week.

Volney L. Taylor, of Sharpsburg, has filed a petition in the Bankruptcy Court. Liabilities $1,165; assets $206.

Sarsaparilla 50 cents per bottle at J. M. Brother's drugstore.

The blackberry briars are all killed. Perhaps the weather will forget on that account to observe blackberry winter.

After Monday of last week the town was extremely dull. The farmers rushing with all their might to get their crops planted, stayed away.

A few of our farmers are planting corn this week. They broke the ground last fall.

Mrs. Ida Elliott has bought a lot of J. J. Lacy on State Avenue and will erect a dwelling house on it at once. Tony Strother has engaged it for a residence.

Here is an item we had two reports on and in trying to cut out one cut both out last week: J. B. Crouch sold to John W. Darnell 12 ewes, 1 buck and 14 lambs for $82.50.

T. S. Shurt will sell you Furniture, Buggies and Coffins cheaper than anyone. Cash or credit.

A large number of an unknown species of bug made their appearance in town last Wednesday night a week. They are something like the cicada (or locust), only longer and not so thick.

Without any vernal transition period, the change was made from winter to summer Tuesday night of last week. Wednesday and Thursday were almost hot days. It gradually returned to a spring temperature the following days.

Brother & Dawson now have plenty of Belmont, Peach Orchard, Cannel and Anthracite Coal. Send in your order.

Elder T. S. Tinsley preached to nearly 700 people at Midway Sunday night and had four confessions. He will return Saturday and occupy the pulpit here Sunday morning and night. Mrs. Tinsley will return Wednesday of this week.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to us please call and settle their accounts at once.

Respt., S. SLESSER.

Having sold our business, it is imperative that we should collect our notes and accounts. Please call at once (in the office formerly occupied by C. W. Nesbitt) and settle your indebtedness. Save us trouble and yourselves costs.

JOHN A. RAMSEY & CO.

GRAND CAKE WALK.—A report of a grand cake-walk conducted by Mrs. Lida Hamilton at the Bethel Colored M. E. Church Saturday is necessarily cut short by lack of space. The names of many of the best white people of Bethel are given as well-pleased spectators. They are thanked by the management for their kind approval.

E. L. & A. T. Byrnes will save you money on Corn Drills. Get their Stoddard's Front Rank and you will have the best.

BEST TIME.—The past week has been all that could be desired for work, and the farmers being about one month behind with their work and with their remembrance of the very long and cold winter it behooves them to get a move on themselves. They cannot afford to lose a good working day from their crops now until they get them planted.

Bob Brother and George Dawson have remodeled the feed stable formerly occupied by W. B. Arnold and C. C. Hazelrigg. They have replenished their corn, oat and hay bins and are fully prepared to take care of a horse. When you come to town stop with them.

INSTRUCTED FOR HUFF.—The Republicans of Bath county met in mass convention at the Court-house here Saturday afternoon to instruct delegates for a Republican candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the 3d district.

There was a keen contest between the supporters of the incumbent John C. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, and James S. Huff, formerly of Wyoming, now of Cynthiana. The Huff side carried the day and gave Huff the instructions. A number of delegates to the Richmond convention May 24 were named and then all Republicans who may attend were made delegates.

If you intend going to house-keeping get our Pine Grove Store and Kitchen outfit. We can save you money.

E. L. & A. T. Byrnes.

INSTRUCTED FOR HAMILTON.—The Democrats of Bath held a mass meeting at the Court-house Saturday afternoon. Delegates were named and instructed to cast the vote of Bath county for Col. A. W. Hamilton, of Montgomery county, Democratic candidate for Railroad Commissioner at the district convention at Winchester April 28th. Also any Democrats who may attend were made delegates. A resolution was adopted deprecating any effort to mix the Commissioner race with any other. Col. Hamilton was the only candidate.

SCHWAB-ROSENSTOCK.—Mr. Henry Schwab left Monday for Cincinnati, where, on April 29, he and Miss Flora Rosenstock, of that city, will be wedded at the residence of the bride.

Everybody knows Henry as one of the jolliest young men in town, and he has been getting his friends to cheer. As one of Slessor's school men he has a wide acquaintance over the county, and his friends will rejoice with him. Miss Rosenstock visited Mrs. S. Slessor last winter, and is a strikingly handsome young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwab will make their home here. We extend congratulations.

MINIHAN.—At his home near this city, on Sunday night last, Mr. Timothy Minihan, aged about 87 years, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Minihan was one of our best and most substantial citizens, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He and his estimable wife, who preceded him to the grave several years, raised a family of one daughter and four sons that were an honor and comfort to them in their declining years, and were present in his last hours, viz: Miss Joanna, Timothy Jr., Eugene, Andrew and Henry. His remains were taken to Paris Tuesday for interment, followed by one of the largest processions that ever left the city.—Carlisle Mercury.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.—By Geo. R. Stodder, of the Plants Warehouse—Louisville, Ky., April 14th, 1899.—Under smaller receipts the market this week was active, with competition from large and small manufacturers very much stronger on all grades of Burley tobacco. Rejections paying good advances. Good to fine leaf and lugs show decided improvement in price. That your readers may have an idea how good lots of tobacco from your section sell will give you the prices on 18 hds. of leaf, lugs and trash sold at our house by Harvey Green, of Grassy, Montgomery county: $13.75, 13.25, 13.25, 13.00, 12.75, 12.75, 12.00, 11.75, 11.75, 10.75, 10.00, 9.90, 9.50, 7.40, 7.30, 7.30, 6.80, 6. The average of this lot by pounds was $10.75 per hundred. We also sold for Wm. Bryant, of Judy, Montgomery county, 9 hds. leaf, lugs and trash at $14.75, 14.50, 14, 11.50, 11.25, 10.75, 8.7, 6.40. The average of 9 hds. was 10.75. The lugs in this lot sold for $14.75, 11.50, and 14.

E. L. & A. T. Byrnes, Successors to J. A. Ramsey & Co.

COUS FOR TOBACCO PLANTING.—Dr. John T. West, of Bowling Green, who is in the city on a visit, says the Cadiz Record, says that one of the simplest and cheapest expedients that ever came under his observation to get a sure stand of tender tobacco plants in a dry season is that of breaking up corn cobs and soaking them in water, say a week or month or any other length of time according to quantity of moisture desired. When the plants are ready and the soil is well prepared to receive them simply insert the cob and the plant into the same cavity in the ground—one by the side of the other. It has been demonstrated, he says, that a well-wet three-inch cob buried in the ground out of sight by the side of a plant will furnish the roots of any ordinary plant enough moisture to carry it well into that degree of life and toughness to defy the ravages of the bugs, worms, and the deadly effects of the scorching sun. Then he says when mister cob has served his moisture mission he is quickly assimilated by the earth, the dominating agency, thus assisting in enriching the land.

LOUISVILLE RACES.—Beginning on Derby Day, May 4, one of the greatest race meetings ever held in Kentucky will be given at the famous Louisville race course. Eleven stakes, including the Kentucky Derby worth $50,000, will be run during the fifteen days. All the crack horses in the country are engaged in these stakes, including Algol, Ben Holladay, Bangle, Lieber, Karl, Manuel, Bannockburn, Kentucky Colonel, The Kentuckian, W. Overton, F. V. Macey, Simon W. Rush, Spirituelle, Onomastus, Alleviate, John Bright, May Hempstead, His Lordship, Jolly Roger, The Barrister, Maza, Billy House, and many others. Nearly 1,000 horses are now quartered at Churchill Downs, insuring large fields and exciting contests. There will be five or more races each day, with liberal added money.

All the railroads have put on cheap excursion rates, the round trip from Owingsville being only one fare. This also includes admission to the grand stand, each railroad ticket having a coupon attached which can be exchanged for a badge at the gate. This is the cheapest rate ever offered from this point, and a big delegation will leave here on Derby Day to take advantage of it.

The Derby will be run on the opening day, Thursday, May 4, and will be followed by the Debutante Stakes, Louisville Handicap, Bluegrass Stakes, Clark Stakes, Madam Stacks, Ed's Stakes, Wagon Stakes, Premier Stakes, Junonah Stakes, and Kentucky Oaks, in the order named. These are the biggest turf events run in the West. On Saturday, May 13, the Gentlemen's Cup race will be run.

UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—NEW ORLEANS, La., April 10th, 1899.—To Editor Outlook, Dear Sir:—Gen. J. B. Gordon, Commanding United Confederate Veterans, respectfully requests that you will aid the patriotic and benevolent objects of the United Confederate Veterans by publishing in your next issue date Reunion is to take place at Charleston, S. C., on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th, 1899, with editorial notice of the organization, or please publish this letter.

Also to urge Ex-Confederate soldiers and sailors everywhere to join themselves immediately into local associations and apply to these Headquarters for telegram or letter for papers to organize in time to participate in the great Reunion to be held at the "Cradle of the Confederacy," and thus unite with their comrades in carrying out the laudable and philanthropic objects of the organization.

Business of the greatest importance will demand careful consideration during the Ninth annual Reunion—such as the best methods of securing impartial history, and to enlist each State in the compilation and preservation of the history of her soldiery; the benevolent care through State aid or otherwise of disabled, destitute, or aged veterans and the widows and orphans of our fallen brothers-in-arms; the care of the graves of our known and unknown dead buried at Gettysburg, Fort Warren, Camp Morton, Chase, Douglas, Oakland Cemetery at Chicago, Johnson's Island, Cairo and at all other points; to see that they are annually decorated; the headstones preserved and protected, and complete lists of names of our dead heroes with the location of their last resting places furnished to their friends and relatives through the medium of our camps, thus rescuing their names from oblivion and handing them down in history; the consideration of the different movements, plans and means to complete the Monument to the memory of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States of America, and to aid in building monuments to other great leaders, soldiers and sailors of the South; and, as there is no relief or aid for our veterans and their families outside of ourselves and our resources, to perfect plans for a mutual aid and benevolent association; to make such changes in the constitution and by-laws as experience may suggest, and other matters of general interest.

General Joseph Wheeler has consented to deliver the Oration at the opening exercises May 10th.

Total number of camps now admitted 1,200, with applications in nearly 150 more.

Geo. MOORMAN, Adj. Gen. and Chief of Staff.

Died, on April 14th, at the home of Thomas Reed, near here, James Hobbs, aged 55 years. He was a native of Canada and had been working at saw mills in this vicinity for a year or more past.

The past few summer days have started the farmers to work in a hurry. They have had so much cold and wet weather this spring that they are very much behind with their work and will make every day count from now on.

South Side.

The Outlook reaches the people of Bath county and is closely read by them too.

The surplus of unknissed kisses that has accumulated since the boys went to the war will shrink so rapidly that you will be able to hear it crack when the boys come marching home again.

Now that it is officially announced that battles are coming in style again the attention of our charming Kentucky women equals is called to the fact that it is very unmanly to wear them.

The beautiful weather of last week stimulated the piscatorial sports to activity. As soon as the water clears in Salt Lick the fishing cranks will line the banks, and tramp in mire and mud, and with muddy shanks, Go home and curse their luck.

I don't know what office I'll get. Indeed, I don't care. Your patriot asks no questions, but takes what comes. So I have decided to split no hairs on what office I shall be a candidate for, but will take any old thing, from dog-pelter to justice of the peace. That is the only proper way. Take what comes and serve your country in any capacity, no matter how humble, for it is better to hold an office in your country than to dwell beneath your own vine and fig-tree and work for an honest living.

The song of the candidate is heard throughout the land in subdued murmurs, which reminds us that the candidate is a queer individual, one of those best-kept weather has no terrors for him, thunder clouds accelerate his motion, while the balmy breezes of evening give way to eighs and figures. Babies come in for their share of eodding, and their fathers are the unceremonious heroes who can fill any place from road overseer to general in the army. That is the candidate. He is a peculiar genius. There is a constant smile on his face like a new moon, and the grasp of his hand is like a Dewey propeller. He thrives on any kind of truck and can cheerfully take his evening snooze anywhere. When the convention turns him down he begins to plan for the next year. The candidate, there is nothing like him. May he live long and send the editor in early his announcement.

MOONSHINE.

World's Biggest Printery.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

After years of typographical touring and many miles of gratiation up and down this mundane sphere in "side door sleeping-cars," and divers pedestrian voyages over railroad ties and through flowery fields and woodland pastures with no company save the "little children of my brain" that came trooping over memory's verdant lawn as peacefully as the brooks by which I rambled, I at last stand in the threshold of the largest "printery" of the modern world, and in wonder gaze on its mammoth stupendousness.

To attempt a detailed description of this gigantic printing establishment would be an almost interminable task. Suffice it to say that it does everything in the printing line, printing in all languages, from tongues of the different Indian tribes, Greek, Latin, etc., down to plain every-day English.

This office employs over 4,000 people, about 1,500 of whom are compositors; the remainder being pressmen, bookbinders, helpers, laborers, folders, watchmen, etc.

Last winter the G. P. O. turned out a piece of work that for neatness and rapidity of execution surpasses anything on record. The report of the commission authorized by Congress to investigate the this office for twenty-five years, has a reputation second to none. He can make ready and turn out more work, on shorter notice, than any pressman we have ever had the pleasure of working with during twenty years at the trade. When the rush came on caused by the Congressional Record Col. Graham was called to the front and given charge of the "Fast Flyer." He had the best crew with him that the office afforded, and this article would be incomplete should we fail to mention the boys who stood by the "Old Roman" pressman during these hours of rush and hard trials.

—E. J. Shine, W. H. Harris, Robert C. Langley and Claude Morris. In this large press room you find the Miehle, Huber, Cottrell, Scott, Wilcock, Hoe, Webb, the speech press, and the celebrated Hoe card press, which prints half a million per day, eight hours work. All of the presses have been selected with the greatest care to meet all the requirements. In no printing office on the face of the earth are finer results obtained than in this press room, over which Mr. D. J. O'Leary, assisted by John Myers, presides; who by their energy and skill supervise daily the printing of 400 separate forms, with nearly 1,000,000 separate impressions, and using more than twenty tons of paper of all kinds. The seven large Webb presses are presided over by William Weber, one among the many good pressmen here.

I could say many more good things about the G. P. O., the largest printing office in the world, but will not worry your readers any more at this time. However, when any of them visit Washington they should not fail to see the inside working of this wonderful printshop.

Yours very truly,

WM. F. SCHOLLER.

THIS TALE OF TEARS.—Man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes into this world without his consent, goes out of it against his will, and his trip between the two eternities is exceedingly rough. The rule of contraries is one of the most important features of the trip. When he is little the girl kiss him. If he raises a large family he is called a poor man, but if he raises a small check he is a thief and a fraud. If he is poor he is a bad man, and if he is rich he is dishonest; if he is in politics he can't tell where to place him, and he's no good to his country; if he does an act of charity it's for policy; if he won't give to charity he's stingy and lives only for himself; if he dies young there is a great fortune ahead for him; if he lives to a ripe old age he has missed his calling. Verily, the road is rough, but men like to travel it.—EX.

Life Saved by Swamp-Root.

The Great Discovery That Cures Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

Statistics prove that more people are brought to the grave by diseases of the kidneys and bladder than by any other disease.

For many years medical science has been trying to discover some remedy that would positively overcome these dangerous troubles.

But not until recently was the discovery made. Doctor Kilmer, the eminent physician and scientist, after years of study and research, and after test on test that never varied in the grand result, announced the discovery of Swamp-Root, which has proven itself a most wonderful cure for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder.

While Swamp-Root has proven such a remarkable success in curing kidney and bladder disease, it has also proved equally invaluable in the cure of blood diseases, rheumatism, liver and stomach troubles, and in the regulation and cure of all uric acid troubles.

Swamp-Root has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief, and has proved so successful in every case, that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and containing some of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women who owe their good health, in fact, their very lives, to the wonderful curative properties of Swamp-Root. Besure and mention this paper when ordering your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.

This great discovery is for sale at most drug-stores in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

SHORT CHIMNEY STACKS.

The Days of the Tall Smoke Belching Factories are Numbered, It is Said.

The days of the tall, smoke-belching factory chimneys are numbered, according to a writer in the Iron Trade Review. Instead, there are to be short stacks and blowers. For illustration, the experience of a Boston manufacturing firm is related. Changes in the arrangement of the works necessitated the removal of the boiler plant, but it was out of the question to take the chimney along. In its stead a fan blower was installed on top of the boiler and provided with a special engine to drive it at just the speed required. It is automatically regulated so that less than one pound drop in steam pressure greatly increases the draft, starts up the fire and brings the pressure back to where it belongs. The fan works by suction, draws the gases from the boiler fire and forces them out through a short stack extending only 31 feet above the boiler plant, but it is two or three times stronger than that of the chimney which has been discarded and is just as strong in all kinds of weather, while the tall stack is a mechanical draught equipment, including the stack, has been less than one half of that of a chimney. Because of the stronger draught much cheaper fuel is burned, the saving being about $1,000 a year. It is possible with mechanical draught to use smaller boilers and still produce the required amount of steam.

Power at the Paris Exposition.
The total amount of power estimated as necessary for the Paris exposition is $3,000 horsepower, which is 15,000 h. p. allotted for lighting and 5,000 for motive power. Upon this assumption there is allowed a consumption of 440, 000 pounds of steam per hour, or, for 200 days, at seven hours per day, a total of 613,000,000 pounds of steam for the entire period. This will require 200 tons of coal a day, and the water required for condensing purposes is estimated at more than 200,000,000 cubic feet for the whole period of the exposition.

Whisky Still in a Smokehouse.
COLUMBIA, Ky., April 15.—Deputy Revenue Collector Will Hawkins and Deputy United States Marshal Page and Coffey raided a moonshine still on Wheat & Williams' farm, nine miles from here, Thursday. The still was of 75-gallon capacity, and was located in a smokehouse. Mart Wheat and Jack Bennett, who it is charged, operated the still, were captured.

Took the Wrong Medicine.
WINCHESTER, Ky., April 16.—Mrs. Ella Jeffries, wife of County Attorney S. A. Jeffries, took a poisonous drug Friday afternoon through mistake. Prompt medical aid was rendered. The chances are in favor of her recovery.

Kentucky Editors' Meeting.
LEXINGTON, Ky., April 16.—The Kentucky Press association has decided to hold its annual convention at Henderson on July 11 and 12, and will leave for Petoskey on its annual outing July 12.

Covington Couple Married.
LEXINGTON, Ky., April 15.—Linn Brown and Bessie J. Douglas, of Covington, were married by Squire Graves Thursday. They claim that it was not an elopement.

Lawrenceburg Failure.
FRANKFORT, Ky., April 15.—S. L. Servey, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., filed a petition in bankruptcy Thursday. Liabilities, $9,000; assets, $5,000.

The Wrecked Steamer Speed.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 15.—The undersigned decided not to remove the freight of the John K. Speed, which sank Sunday, until the river rises. At dark the gauge showed 9 feet 6 inches on the falls. There seems to be no danger of the Speed breaking up.

Not the Right Man.

WILL TUTT EXECUTED.

The Wife Murderer Ends His Family Career on the Gallows at Mayfield. His Nerve Failed Him.

MAYFIELD, Ky., April 14.—Will Tutt, the Negro wife murderer, was executed from the gallows inside the county jailyard at 9:35 Thursday morning, and pronounced dead in nine minutes by Drs. J. H. Creery and J. L. Dismukes, Jr. The condemned man refused to address the large crowd from the platform especially constructed for that purpose, but asked to be carried to the gallows. He appeared indifferent until the noose was placed around his neck, when his nerve failed him and he became so weak he could hardly stand alone. Before leaving the cell, Revs. Roberts, Jewell and Latham, white ministers, passed and talked with him and received expressions of confidence as to his hereafter. Tutt shot and almost instantly killed his wife in this city on the morning of August 11, 1897, because she told him she was going to a baseball game with another man. He was 27 years of age, brownish color, good appearance and six feet in height. Burial was at the colored people's cemetery, Tutts came to Mayfield from Owensboro, Ky., just prior to his bloody crime.

Shortly before the execution Tutt sent for three white ministers, saying the Negroes swore his life away and he had no confidence in them. The ministers prayed with him and Tutt professed conversion. The condemned man made several attempts to speak on the scaffold, but broke down each time. When the trap was sprung the rope slipped and death resulted from strangulation. Fifty people were admitted to the hanging, four Negroes among them.

Several women witnessed the execution from jail windows. Tutt was to play with a Mayfield team in a game of baseball at Columbus, Ky. His wife insisted on going to Columbus to see the game. Tutt became enraged at her insistence and finally fired two pistol balls into her body, one piercing the heart. He rushed out exclaiming: "Now you are going to Columbus, are you?"

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

Supreme Court to Consist of a President and Six Associate Justices.

The President Will Receive $6,000 a Year—Gen. Lee Reads His Farewell Address to His Countrymen, His Son and Daughter Visits Gen. Lee.

HAVANA, April 17.—The Cuban general, Pedro Diaz, of the 6th army corps, in the province of Pinar del Rio, was sworn in Monday and the command of 200 rural police in his province. He declined the proposition on the ground that the command tendered was too small. Brig. Gen. Henry C. Hasbrouck, commander of the military department of Pinar del Rio, raised the offer to $20 a month. These figures Gen. Diaz is considering and will probably accept. His force will be mounted, each private receiving $20 a month and providing his own equipment.

The decree constituting the supreme court has been prepared with elaborate care by Senor Lanza, secretary of the interior, and will probably be enacted, and after thorough consideration by the cabinet is ready to be promulgated.

It establishes a tribunal of last appeal in civil and criminal proceedings, vesting the new body with full jurisdiction over such cases as formerly came to the supreme court. The personnel of the court has not yet been announced, but the tribunal will consist of a president at a salary of $6,000 (American) and of six associate justices at salaries of $5,000. The attorney general will receive a salary of $2,000. The 10th Illinois volunteers and the 24th artillery were reviewed Sunday by Gen. Brooke, Gen. Lee and Gen. Gomez. There were 900 men in the ranks, the last of the 7th corps, and they made an admirable showing. Gen. Lee, in the farewell order which he read, said among other things that it had been the purpose of President McKinley to assign to the 7th corps the duty and honor of leading the assault upon Havana had that been necessary. After the parade Gen. Gomez and his daughter paid a visit to Gen. Lee. Senorita Gomez will return to Santo Domingo this week but her father will probably remain here indefinitely.

"THE FATHER OF ARIZONA."

Adventurous Career of Charles D. Poston in the Territory's Early Days.

The legislature of Arizona has just passed an act conferring a pension of $25 a month on Charles D. Poston, first delegate to congress from the territory, styled in the bill "The Father of Arizona."

For more than a score of years Poston was a power in the southwest. Today, broken and feeble-minded and long, he stumps around Phoenix alone and neglected, almost destitute, in his seventy-fourth year.

Poston's first venture into Arizona was in 1853 when he explored the Apache country with an intrepid band of 30 California prospectors. The journey was made by way of Guaymas, Sonora. Several large deposits of rich silver were found and far from the ancient Spanish pueblo of Tubac, and Poston, laden with mineral specimens, hurried to New York. There he readily secured the necessary financial assistance, at the head of the company formed being S. P. (afterward general) Heintzelman. Nearly $100,000 was invested in mining machinery and in the development of the mines, which were phenomenally rich. Northern Mexican troops left the region, at the outbreak of the civil war, the Apaches and confederates alike closed in, and the works were abandoned, never again to be opened.

Poston remained in the territory, and in 1863, after serving Gen. Heintzelman for awhile as aide, he became superintendent of Indian affairs in the southwest, and as well received in the Anaconda, N. M., in which county there lay all of what is now Arizona. While serving in the latter capacity he personally named the territory, and secured the signature of Lincoln to the act that granted separate government.

In 1864 he was elected first delegate in congress. In later years he filled a number of diplomatic appointments abroad, and several governmental positions in the southwest. His travels have been world-wide, and his memory is still active in catchy personal reminiscences that vary from tales of pirates on the China sea to stories of how he governed his little kingdom at Tubac. In bygone days he issued several clever prose works, and his poetical productions of 20 years ago are even now considered of rare merit. —N. Y. Tribune.

NOVEL WAY TO RAISE MONEY.
Ingenuous Method Adopted at Anderson, Ind., to Secure Church Funds.

The latest and most ingenious collection scheme, somewhat after the plan of the endless chain, has been brought out in Anderson, Ind., by the Methodist and Christian churches. Each church has toward the erection of $25,000 auditors.

They call it "calendar." It is started by one person in each case, who assumes the title of the year and pays two dollars and selects 12 others for the months who each pay one dollar and find four people who each pay 20 cents and assume the weeks of the month. They get 200 people at 20 cents apiece for the days, and these seven each secure 24 at ten cents, each to cover the hours of the day. The minutes and seconds could also be worked on, but the chain is stopped on the hours. Each chain run this far successfully will bring in just an even $1,000. It is much more satisfactory and not so much trouble as the endless letter chain, as all the work is done by personal canvass.

Sarah.
I may remark that Sarah, or rather the Virgiate form Sara, was not unknown in pre-reformation days. It occurs three times in Mr. J. H. Jay's "Catalogue of Charters at Berkeley Castle." We have Sara, wife of Gilbert di Raddul de Baggepeth, circa 1250. In the reign of Henry III. Ralph de Jowars granted to Sara de Blokesham half a virgate of land in Nunton; that is, South Newington, in Oxfordshire; and in a deed dated 11 Richard II. the names occur of a William, Palmer of Oxford, and Sara his wife (P. 102, 120, 179). I know of but two instances of the name Sara being used. A remote cousin of my own was baptized thus in the year 1572. The following is the entry in the register: "Sara Peacock, the daughter of Richard, the third of March." A woman of Liphedburgh birth and of peasant family, she was married about the year 1570 to a John, of the same family, 50 years of age, bears, I am told the Christian name Sara!—Notes and Queries.

ALL the formalities of making peace have been gone through with, and Spain and the United States will soon resume diplomatic relations.

A YOUNG Alabamian has invented an electrical machine that enables totally deaf persons to hear. Watson will have to use one on Bryan.

The way is getting rocky in Kentucky for the combines. A local combine of Frankfort coal dealers to keep up the price of coal was fined $500 for it in one case.

ATTORNEY GENERAL MONNETT, of Ohio, says the Standard Oil Company offered him a bribe of $500,000. If every man has his price Monnett's must be "out of sight."

The Western Tobacco Journal says it has from an unquestionable authority the information that the Tobacco Trust has closed the deal for the purchase of the Liggett & Myers tobacco works. That gives the Trust a nearly complete grip on the growers.

FRANK GREEN, of Bradstreet's, estimated at the middle of last week that 600,000 workmen had received an increase of wages 10 to 25 per cent. That's a sort of good work that ought to go on.

The fire eaters of Germany are spouting hot stuff about "British insolence" and "Yankee impudence" since the latest developments in Samoa. The responsible members of the German government are not so brash, however.

The Kentucky Tobacco Growers' League, organized at Lexington to fight the Tobacco Trust, died with out a further struggle last week. The farmers had seen every similar movement among themselves end in practical failure and were chary of entering the League.

Gov. Lee, of South Dakota, has written to President McKinley demanding the return from the Philippines of the volunteer soldiers from that State on the grounds that they enlisted for a humanitarian war and not fight a people struggling for political freedom.

Woon goes to the Railroad Commissioners convention with far the largest instructed vote—something near 300, so it is claimed, but that is far short of the number necessary to nominate. If the other candidates don't combine against him as the strongest man his prospects for victory are good.

THE U. S. Philippines Commission finds a practically unanimous belief among all classes interviewed that the Filipinos are incapable of self-government. The manner in which the insurgent element has organized and conducted the warfare against both Spain and the United States hardly confirms that belief.

BRYAN says to let the gold bug Democrats come back to the Chicago Platform party if they will content themselves to keep quiet and take without a grudge the whole mass of dose they so scornfully rejected in 1896. Meanwhile the Silver Republican and Populist recruits will help provide the genuine Democracy for said penitent gold-bugs.

A WRITER in the news department of the Louisville Post thinks that Hardin's opponents will adopt some plan soon in the hope of defeating him, either by the withdrawal of Goebel or Stone, or by both retiring in favor of ex-Gov. John Young Brown or Congressman Al Henry. If it comes to that pass it will be like finding money to bet on Hardin.

THE Belmont Banquet, or Ten-Dollar Jefferson Dinner, last Thursday night was New York's greatest effort in the banquet line up to that time. About 1,800 guests were seated, and in decorations and food the dinner was superb. As to its political success, it being a Tammany affair, no doubt it was perfect, locally regarded. But at the same time Bryan was eating another sort of a Jefferson dinner at Milwaukee, and each faction has its own opinion as to which spread Jefferson's ghost attended.

AN incident of the Samoan troubles that might have caused a serious clash between the United States and Great Britain on one side and Germany on the other promises now to be settled diplomatically. On April 1st, a party of Americans and British under command of a British naval lieutenant left the warships for an expedition on land. They were ambushed by natives, the commander and two British sailors, an American lieutenant, an ensign and two others were killed. The natives lost heavily, but were victorious, and mutilated the bodies of the whites. It is believed that the attack was made at the instigation of some German. However, a joint commission of the three powers will leave soon for the scene with the purpose of adjusting the troubles. Germany appears very desirous of annexing the islands, and the recent troubles are believed in England and America to be the outcome of the schemes of Germany's agents to hasten the agreement for a disposition of the islands.

THE Jefferson Democratic Dinner patronized by Bryan in New York Saturday night seems to have been a success. Nearly three thousand people were present, and "white men elbowing with colored men and white women with colored women," says the Associated Press report. Four Japanese and three Chinese attended, the latter as lookers-on merely. Some 475 women dined. Bryan was given a gratifying ovation. His speech was mainly along Chicago platform lines.

He made no mention of the Chicago convention to hold if the platform wasn't made just so and become a "traitor" just like the gold-bug Democrats.

John Clark Ridpath, the historian, was the speaker on the subject "Thomas Jefferson." Perhaps few of his hearers remember him as a former rank Republican who colored even his historical and biographical work with his Federalistic convictions. In his address on "Alexander Hamilton," delivered in 1880, he hails Hamilton as the constructive force of the Revolution, as contrasted with Jefferson, the "destroyer, pure and simple." While Hamilton was constructing the Constitution with the aid of the much lesser builders Jefferson and the other "destroyers" lay asleep in their tent.

It is a little bit funny to hear of the critic of the great "destroyer" becoming his eulogist at a dinner held to further the teachings of this same "destroyer" when the spirit of Alexander Hamilton presides at every truly Republican gathering in America, whether a dinner or a convention.

Forty-eight thousand goes into three million too few times for the Cuban patriot who fit and fled from the hated Spanish rule three years or more, but that's the biggest he will get out of Uncle Sam's generosity. But wait till he gets a pension!
